Youth Sport Trust

COACHING

Using 2012 to pioneer an environment where coaches are an integral part of the school workforce

More & higher quality coaching in schools

Learning mentors that are coaches

Parents/carers trained and deployed as coaches

Students developing and qualified as coaches

LEADING the Legacy –
Creating the CHANGE

YOUNG PEOPLE LEADING THE WAY

Using 2012 to create an environment where young people develop and deliver change and not just receive it

A more diverse group of young people, undertaking more roles in a wider range of environments

Young people making policy not just shaping it

Role modelling excellence in behaviour and sport

LEADING the Legacy –
Creating the CHANGE

SCHOOL-CLUB LINKS

Using 2012 to develop school-club links where young people transition because of a system not despite the system

More hub and satellite clubs developed on school sites

Creating a common 'brand' for young people

Clubs part of a new facility planning – not an afterthought

LEADING the Legacy –
Creating the CHANGE

COMPETITION

Using 2012 to modernise competitive school sport – presented differently, structured differently and engaging different youngsters

More young people experiencing HQ competition

National NGB defined competitions being delivered effectively and consistently locally

Creating a continuum – intra → inter → representative

Supporting the transfer of talent at a young age

LEADING the Legacy –
Creating the CHANGE

INNOVATION IN DELIVERY

Using 2012 to inspire those who currently say NO to sport to say YES

Doing things differently and doing different things

Presenting existing activities differently

Finding new activities for different people

LEADING the Legacy –
Creating the CHANGE
